

Regarding the "No Call List". I feel the No Call List should continue! It is an interference in my privacy, when several times during the evening, when I am trying to enjoy time with my family, the phone will rings to solicitate everything from phone services to purchasing windows. If I want their information I will call them....they don't have to call me!
Thank you-